

CLASSES REQUIRED	10
TOPIC	One World (MAIN COURSE)
CONCEPT &amp; SKILLS	CONCEPT          How important the environment is?          Being united          Information about Chief Seattle(American Environmentalist)          Indian poet( Rabindranath Tagore)          Tenses especially the perfect tense (identification in text)          Deeper understanding of environmental processes, hazards to environment, renewable and non-renewable resources.          Diversity in cultures and unity in diversity.          Fellow feeling.          Comprehension of the text, specific and global. Skills          Reading          Writing          Recitation          Speaking
LEARNING OUTCOMES	unity in diversity          harmony with the environment          Make them environment friendly.          Information about Chief Seattle(American Environmentalist)          About the poet( Rabindranath Tagore)          Appreciation for the poem and make them think about the planet earth.          Negativities related to hatred.          Developing a bond of love despite of different cultures.

	New Vocabulary  Waned  weathered  Reminiscing  Scanned the Hall  Expectantly  Turbulent  Millennia  Exhausts
INSTRUCTIONAL TOOLS &amp; REFERENCES	Text book, Internet
PEDAGOGY	Discussion. Interaction. Random questioning. In-text questions.
ACTIVITY / ASSIGNMENT / RESEARCH	Work in groups of five. Use your imagination to write an acrostic on HARMONY or DIVERSITY.
ASSESSMENT	Declamation of one of the two famous personalities mentioned above.(Speech)
SYLLABUS FOR FORMATIVE &amp; SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT	FA Reading Dictation Activity SA Extracts. Word meanings.